

SelaQui International School

In the ever changing world, boarding schools are no longer an island in itself. Parents have to play a major role in the education of their children as well. The parent body therefore has to work in conjunction with the school management to do their bit in providing quality education for their children. The school looks up to their parent body for constant support and cooperation in upholding the school values and beliefs. The contribution of parents can be in different ways and SelaQui International School values the inputs given by the parents.

- Share in the vision, mission and philosophy of SelaQui International School.
- Support the school rules and policies which are value based and in turn enable us to run an efficient school system.
- Participate in important school events and functions.
- Contribute voluntarily with their talents and expertise in various fields.
- Stand by the school in times of emergencies /need.
- Be an active participant in their child's learning program.
- Provide constructive and valuable feedback to the Management so that timely actions can be taken for the betterment of the school.
- Work closely with Parent's Advisory Committee (PAC) members to put forward your ideas for overall development of the school.
- Ensure that all payments are made on time since the budget is planned around the fee payments and delays may adversely affect the smooth running of various school programs.

We look forward to our strong association and trust as we work towards meeting our mutual expectations. As an institution we are committed to the security, progress and welfare of your child.

SelaQui International School Community